INDEPENDENTS ARE FOR WILSON

Non-Partisan League Formed to Wage Nation-Wide Fight

MEN OF BIG AFFAIRS

Norman Hapgood Will in Charge of National Headquarters Which Will be in Washington.

The campaign for the re-election of Woodrow Wilson will be furthered by a nation-wide, nonpartisan league composed of business men, capitalists, philanthropists, editors and other independents who ordinarily take no part whatever in active politics.

The announcement of this league was made in Washington yesterday following informal conferences between its organizers, many of whom came to Washington to attend the meeting of the peace advocates. The names of a group of these organizers were also made public to indicate the tremendous importance of the part the organization may be expected to play in the campaign.

Many of these men have never before appeared in a fight for the election of a President, and but few of them have ever supported a Democrat for that office either by their vote or their voice. The names of the members of the organization committee show the significance of the movement.

This committee is composed of the following:

Jacob Schiff, New York, banker and philanthropist.

Norman Hapgood, Washington and New York, editor.

Mass., banker.

Cleveland H. Dodge, New York, merchant.

Charles H. Jones, Boston, manufacturer.

Henry Bruere, New York, municipal official.

Isidor Jacobs, San Francisco, canner.

Lamar Hardy, New York, corporation counsel.

Rathbone Gardner, Providence, R. I., Republican leader.

Russell Whitman, Evanston, Ill., Progressive.

Ray Stannard Baker, Amherst, Mass., writer.

William E. Sweet, Denver, Col., banker.

Otto T. Mallory, Philadelphia, capitalist.

Lawrence A. Woods, Pittsburgh, Republican lawyer.

Paul Fuller, New York, lawyer.

Joseph M. Price, New York, manufacturer.

Richard Lloyd Jones, Madison, Wis., editor.

Herbert Quick, Springfield, Ohio, editor.

Samuel Fels, Philadelphia, manufacturer.

Clarence Howard, St. Louis, Mo., manufacturer.

Bernard N. Baker, Baltimore, capitalist.

Graham Taylor, Chicago, editor.

William Kent, California, Independent Congressman.

John D. Crimmins, New York capitalist.

The roster points very clearly to the fact that President Wilson will be actively supported in the coming fight by a class of men that no other Democrat candidate in a generation has been able to attract. And this support has come to Mr. Wilson without the surrender by him of a single conviction as to what constitutes legitimate enterprise in this country.

This group of men, some of them controlling millions of dollars of investments and most of them representative of the best element of American industry, are prompted to engage in a political campaign in the President's behalf because he has been able to accomplish two vital things—honorable peace and abundant prosperity. Such support can be counted for on those grounds, if there were no other.

A interesting circumstance about the organization of this league is the willingness of such men as compose its committee to lend themselves to a Democratic campaign before the Republicans have had time to offer them a candidate. In the ordinary course of such movements the real independents of the country await the action of the two national conventions and then decide which of the two candidates and platforms is most worthy of confidence.

In the present situation, however, the men in and behind the Nonpartisan League are for Wilson, no matter whom the Republicans may nominate, or the Progressives, or the Socialists, or any other organization. There is not now, at all events, a possible candidate on the Republican or Bull Mose horizon who holds the league organizers off.

From the statement issued in connection with the names of the organization committee, it is evident that the committeemen expect to make a sweeping campaign in behalf of the president. They will organize in every state that is remotely doubtful and will carry on a national propaganda entirely aside from the local contests.

The political possibilities of such a league as has now been started were clearly demonstrated eight years ago when John Hays Hammond organized a similar movement in behalf of Judge Taft. The Hammond campaigners did effective work, throughout the entire East and made themselves a very considerable factor in the overwhelming result of the contest.

National headquarters of the league will be located in Washington until after the St. Louis Convention.

COL. MOSBY SINKING.

In Critical Condition at Garfield Hospital, in Washington, and His Family Gives Up Hope.

Washington, May 29. — Colonel John S. Mosby, who is critically ill at the Garfield Hospital here, was reported last night in a sinking condition. His family has abandoned hope for his recovery. Col. Mosby has been ill for the past few weeks with the infirmities of old age. Yesterday his condition became worse.

Several years ago Col. Mosby suffered from a severe attack of illness, but his wonderful vitality pulled him through. However, his strength has rapidly been failing, and he has been unable to rally from his present illness.

Although a native of Virginia Col. Mosby has made his home in Washington for many years. His last public appearance was in Norfolk last April.

REPULSED TEUTON ATTACKS.

Invaders Hurled Back from Woods by the French.

Paris, May 29.—In a five-hour battle waged last night on the west bank of the Meuse, two most violent German attacks from the Corbeaux woods, west of Cumieres, were completely repulsed, the war office announced today.

The Germans launched the first attack at 7 o'clock, attempting to recapture the trenches taken by the French in Thursday's fighting. The struggle continued for more than an hour, the Germans finally withdrawing into the ravine east of Dead Man's Hill.

The second attack began just before midnight. Desperate fighting went on under the ghastly glare of illuminating bombs until the Germans were again hurled back into the woods.

East of the Meuse violent artillery struggles continued throughout the night in the region of Vaux, but there were no important infantry actions. In Lorraine a German reconnoissance near Parroy was repulsed.

French aviators took part in fifteen aerial flights Sunday, bringing down three German flyers, near Monthois, Berry-au-Bac, and west of Rheims.

Two other German planes were brought down by the French cannon mounted on motor cars, one north of Avoncourt and another in the region of Forges.

PEACE IN THE PARTY RANKS

Withdrawal of Col. James Brings Harmony in Virginia

TO SUCCEED ELLYSON

"Unity" Slate For Roanoke Convention Agreed Upon—Both Senators will Attend.

As a result of the withdrawal of Col. Rorer A. James from the race for National Committeeman, clearing the field for the unanimous election of Representative Carter Glass, Democratic leaders of Virginia have agreed upon a "harmony and unity" slate for the Roanoke State convention, which will be held June 2 and at which delegates of the St. Louis convention, a National Committee and a state chairman will be elected. The slate follows:

Democratic National Committeeman—Representative Carter Glass, Lynchburg.

So far as is known this slate will go through without a protesting voice. It was agreed upon in order to bring about perfect unity in the Democratic ranks Saturday.

The action of Colonel James caused general rejoicing among the Virginia Democratic leaders in the state.

Representative Flood, who was slated for State chairman, agreed to eliminate himself. Colonel James' friends believed he would be satisfied if given the State chairmanship. Representative Flood, as a reward for his standing aside for Colonel James for the State chairman, was offered the support of the leaders for delegate at large.

Senator Martin, who was backing Colonel James for national committeeman, and Representative Glass, leader of the "anti-organization" forces and a candidate against Mr. James, issued statements yesterday expressing pleasure at the prospect of party peace in Virginia. Representative Glass, however, stated that he had nothing to do with the movement which brought about the withdrawal of Colonel James.

"I am greatly pleased at prospect of peace at Roanoke and the subsidence of a bitter intra-party controversy," said Mr. Glass. "The sole purpose of permitting the use of my name for national committeeman was to respond suitably to an overture for harmony in Virginia politics. I am deeply gratified that the Democrats of the state, regardless of factional division, so quickly apprehended this fact and so generously responded to the spirit of the occasion."

Senator Martin, in his statement said:

"I have been all along exceedingly anxious to see a harmonious convention at Roanoke. I have done everything in my power to see that result accomplished. It was a keen disappointment to me when the contest developed between Rorer A. James and Mr. Glass. You can readily appreciate, therefore, how deeply gratified I am that the contest has been ended. I feel that Mr. James' services to the Democratic party and his magnanimous action entitled him to special recognition at this time, and I most earnestly hope that he will accept the position of chairman of the state committee."

Colonel James in a statement, said that he withdrew from the contest for national committeeman in order to promote party peace, as he has found his candidacy a subject of criticism that might possibly prove injurious to Democracy in his state. He added he regards this criticism as unjust.

J. J. HILL IS DEAD

Rare Medicine Has But Little Effect on "Empire Builder"

St. Paul, Minn., May 29—James J. Hill, railroad magnate, died shortly before noon today.

St Paul, May 29—The condition of James J. Hill, aged "empire builder" and railroad magnate, was considered so serious early today that his physicians gave out the announcement that little hope is entertained for his recovery.

His family has been called to the bedside.

A little-used sedative, brought from Chicago in a special train which set a new record for speed between that city and St. Paul, had little effect in quieting Mr. Hill.

He passed a restless, unsatisfactory day. His pulse was good, but his temperature was high, and he suffered considerable pain. At intervals he was unconscious.

NAIL IN HIS HEAD 50 YEARS..

Headache ceases when Iron Works Out Through Mouth.

Dawson, Pa., May 29.—A fourpenny nail, after being nearly 50 years in the head of Fred Seibert, jr., came out through the roof of his mouth Friday. Mr. Seibert has suffered since he was 17 years of age with constant headaches and, despite medical skill, nothing could be done for him. His headache ceased when the bit of iron emerged through the roof of his mouth.

When 17 years old a piece of lumber fell on Seibert's head and caused an ugly wound. Later the wound healed and the head pains became frequent.

CONVENTION TO DRAW BIG CROWD

Certain Matters Expected to Cause Keen Interest

OVER 1200 DELEGATES

State Committee Will Meet Thursday Evening to Make Arrangemensts for the Gathering.

The largest gathering that has attended a State convention in years is expected in Roanoke this week.

The fixing of the convention date by the State committee last March was followed by a desultory uncontested election of delegates, and the weeks passed by with nothing more interesting in prospect than a cheerful indorsement of the administration and the selection of the St. Louis delegation.

Then suddenly came the James-Glass contest, and instantly the battle was on. Interest in the contest at once was reflected in the doubling of county delegations. Counties and cities, answering the demand of citizens who desired to be officially accredited to the convention, began in large numbers to elect delegates with half a vote each, with the result that instead of 900 delegates, each with one vote, the convention promised to attract more than 1,200 accredited delegates.

Secretary Brenaman, of the State Democratic Committee, said yesterday that the localities which have elected double delegations with fractional votes are larger in number than in the case of any previous State Convention in recent years. The James-Glass contest revived interest in the convention, and many who were attracted by the factional fight will attend even now that the main contest has been settled out of court.

For weeks every hotel room in Roanoke has been reserved by delegates and their friends, Governor Stuart, secretary Brenaman and other prominent leaders will make their headquarters at the Roanoke Hotel. Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson will be at the Ponce De Leon. The convention will meet in the new auditorium near the Roanoke. Mr. Brenaman will leave Richmond for Roanoke to-morrow night to make final arrangements for the meeting of the State Democratic Committee, which will take place at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening. Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, who is chairman of the State committee, will leave on Wednesday night.

CHURCH SERVICES.

The Rev. Eugene B. Jackson, D D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, who recently returned from the great Baptist convention held at Asheville, N. C., gave the congregation of the First Baptist Church at yesterday morning's service a vivid account of his impressions of that convention which he declared was one of the most important in the history of the church.

At the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday morning Adjutant W. H. Heift, of the Salvation Army of Washington, delivered an address in the absence of the Rev. John L. Allison, D. D., who has gone to Bristol, Tenn.

VETERANS' SONS' MEETING.

A meeting of the M. D. Corse camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans and others who are interested will be held tomorrow night at Lee Camp Hall. At this time preliminary arrangements will be made for the entertainment of the United Confederate Veterans when they hold their reunion in Washington next spring.

CONSECRATE NEW BISHOPS.

Impressive Service, Last Important Business of Conference, Held at Saratoga Springs.

Saratoga Spring, N. Y. May 29.—Seven new bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church were consecrated yesterday afternoon at an impressive service, which was almost the last important business of the twenty-seventh general conference before final adjournment today.

All of the board of bishops participated in the service.

The conference urged members of the church to ally themselves with political efforts against the liquor traffic. A new section of the discipline will ask that members refrain from the use of tobacco.

Suffrage was indorsed and polygamy denounced. Efforts to remove the "amusement clause" from the discipline again failed, and members are still liable to expulsion if they play cards, dance or attend theaters. Ministers who officiate at the marriage of divorced persons now are made answerable to their conference for an act a maladministration. Previously there was no penalty.

BULGARIANS IN GREECE.

Twenty-Five Thousand Have Crossed the Border.

Saloniki, May 29.— A Bulgarian army of 25,000 led by German officers and supported by German cavalry, has crossed the Greek border. They have captured Fort Roupel, have reached the site of the Demir Hissar Bridge recently blown up by the French and are swarming over the Strumitza Valley. It is also reported that they have taken Forts Dragotin, Spatovo and Kanivo.

The invaders control the railroad from Saloniki to Kavalla, which is the key to Seres, and which opens up an almost uninterrupted passage to Sofia.

The Greeks at Fort Roupel fired 26 shots at the advancing Bulgarians and then retired.

The entire Serbian army, numbering 100,000 men, has crossed the Aegean Sea from Corfu, where it has been stationed and landed here. Gen. Sarrainli, in command of the allied forces, reports that the Serbians claim the right to offer the first resistance to the invading Bulgarians. Cannonading is now in progress near Demir Hissar, and infantry engagements are reported from the left bank of the Vardar.

The most intense excitement prevails here and in Athens over the violation of Greek territory by the central powers. The Bulgarian and German officers gave the Greeks three hours to surrender Fort Roupel. In demanding its surrender, they explained that the occupation was necessary to secure the Bulgarian left wing against an eventual attack from the forces of the allies. As soon as this purpose is accomplished, it was explained, the occupied territory will be restored to Greece.

While the Greek army is rendered practically powerless by King Constantine's determination not to enter the war, the Hellenic people are demanding that the invasion of Greek territory be avenged.

Reports from Athens declare that a great mass of Bulgarian, German and Austrian forces is concentrating, prepared to back up the advance.

The belief is general here and in Athens that it is the intention of King Constantine to confine his action to a protest. If this proves correct, it is feared there will be an uprising among the Greeks.

HORSESHOER'S STRIKE NEAR.

Chicago Union Has First Difficulty In Thirty Years.

Chicago, May 29. — Even the old horses feel they must go barefoot if there is not a quick adjustment of the difficulties between the members of the Horseshoers' Union and their employers, the Master Horseshoers.

The most peaceful union in Chicago is to start today, the leaders declare. For 30 years there has been amity between the horseshoers and their employers. They have worked side by side for many years, but many of the master shoers still stand at the forge and shape horseshoes with their men.

"We simply cannot meet the demands of the men who are asking for an increase of $1 a day," said Robert Falconer and Edward O'Grady of the Master Horseshoers' Protective Association.

APPEAL COMES OUT OF MEXICO

United States Citizens at Tampico Wire For Protection

AGAINST AMERICANS

Carranza's Note, Due Today, Expected to Demand Withdrawal of United States Troops.

Washington, May 29. On the eve of the receipt of Gen. Carranza's new note, which officials believe will renew the demand for withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, and with another conference between American and Mexican military commanders about to begin, a protest has been received at the White House reporting serious difficulties between American oil operators at Tampico and the Mexican authorities.

The protest came in the form of a telegram addressed to President Wilson by 84 American citizens residing at Tampico, who had held a massmeeting and determined to lay their case before the Government. They declared the Mexican military officials were promulgating decrees designed to make it impossible for Americans to do business in the country and told how one of their number had been arrested and imprisoned for three hours because he refused to pay his employes wages fixed by the authorities in excess of terms previously agreed upon with the men.

The signers of the message, asserted their right to protection from the American Government and announced their determination not to comply with arbitrary and confiscatory orders and decrees by the Mexicans.

White House officials sent the protest to the State Department for investigation. Other complains already have been received regarding recent decrees by the Carranza government and it is probable that there will be representations on the subject just as soon as the controversy over the presence of American troops in Mexico is adjusted.

"It has become practically impossible for an American to do business of any nature in this section of the country," the Tampico message said, "because of restrictions placed by the authorities that we believe to be directed primarily against American citizens."

EAGLES DEEFEAT EMPIRES.

The Alexandria Eagles broke the last Empire A. C. ball tossers winning streak yesterday afternoon in a well played and interesting game, score 4 to 3. With the score 2 to 2 against the locals in the seventh inning, a base on balls and successive hits by Lefty White and Archie Scrivener put the game on ice,

Lefty White had all the better of the pitching duel with Hamel, the Empires star twirler, holding the losers to three scattered hits and retiring 13 by the way of the strike-out route. The hard batting of Scrivener, Astryke and White for the winners and Grisson for the losers featured one of the most exciting games played here this season. Score by innings:

Engles	0	1	0	0	1	0	2	—	4	8	3
Empires	1	0	0	1	0	0	1	—	3	(3	3

Batteries — Eagles, White and Jones,; Empires— Hamel and Lyons

The Eagles will have the strong White Sox A. C. of this city, as their opponents May 30th (Decoration Day) on their north Alfred street grounds and as these two teams are rivals a close game is expected. Manager Payne, of the White Sox, will have Jimmy Quayle on the firing line and he will be opposed by the Eagles star, Lefty White. This is a benefit game for Catcher Robinson, of the Eagles, who had three ribs broken in a recent game, and will start at 2:30 p. m.

GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

Heat Wave of Yesterday Followed By Rain, Thunder and Lighting in the Afternoon and Night

After a long spell of cool spring weather, conditions changed materially yesterday, and July temperatures prevailed over this section of the country. The mercury kept well up in the nineties, and in the afternoon clouds began to form from which thunder muttered. The first cloud seemed to split when it reached this city, part passing to the northeast and the other in a southeasterly direction. There was but little rain here until about church time when it came down in torrents for over an hour. A calm followed which brought sultry conditions for a time, but later the breeze from the southeast became fresher and temperature fell somewhat.

The rain northeast of Alexandria was copious, and was accompanied in some places by considerable thunder and lightning and hail.

Reports from certain parts of Maryland show that the storm was severe.

The suburban and rural sections of Baltimore were swept by the storm that washed the roads, uprooted trees, covered the ground with broken branches and did much damage to the gardens, fruit and grain. At Reisterstown and as far south as Owings Mills it was accompanied by heavy hail that added to the damage done the growing vcrops and fruit.

Throughout the Green Spring Valley the storm swept with great force and was accompanied by terrific wind that blew down many trees and blocked the roads. At Reisterstown, as well as throughout the Valley, the electric lights were out and crews sent out to make repairs had difficulty in traveling over the roads, owing to the uprooted trees and broken branches.

The temperature hereabout today has been more pleasant.

BISHOP'S VISITATIONS

Holds Confirmation Services at Seminary Chapel and Missions Yesterday Morning

Bishop Coadjutor Brown of the Spiscopal Diocese of Virginia has been making visitations for confirmation in Fairfax and Alexandria counties since Thursday of last week and will continue them until Wednesday of this week. On Thursday night May 25th., he held a confirmation service at St. Pauls chapel, Bailey's Cross Roads, where he confirmed sixteen candidates. On Friday night May 26th, he visited St. Paul's Chapel Linconia, where he confirmed three, and on Saturday night, May 27th., he went to St. John's, Glencarlyn, Alexandria Ca., and confirmed three persons. Dr. S. A. Wallis of the Theological Seminary accompanied the bishop on these visitations as rector of the Seminary Missions and presented the candidates.

Yesterday, Sunday, the bishop held a confirmation at the Seminary chapel near this city and confirmed sixteen, fifteen of these being boys from the Episcopal High School, presented by the Rev. Dr. Kennedy of the Seminary and chaplain of the High School, the other candidate being from the vicinity presented by the Rev. Dr. Wallis. At four o'clock in the evening the bishop visited St. George's Church, Farlee, Alexandria County, and confirmed ten candidates and at night he went to Epiphany Church, Cherrydale in the same county and confirmed fourteen persons. The services were largely attended, and much interest was shown by the congregations. Bishop Brown impressed everyone by his excellent practical sermons which appealed to all, and by his charming personality and desire to know the people of the churches visited by him.

Dr. Wallis as rector in charge of the churches at Farlee and Cherrydale presented the candidates for confirmation. The work at all of these missions reflects much credit upon the Seminary students who are placed over them.

The bishop will visit Trinity Chapel Alexandria, County, tonight. The Chapel of the Good Shepherd, in this city under Dr. Phillips tomorrow, Tuesday night, and the Seminary Mission at Burke, Fairfax county, Wednesday night which will complete his present round of visitations.

CRITICIZE WILSON.

London Papers Comment Upon His Speech Before League to Enforce Peace.

London, May 29.—The majority of the London newspapers today were severely critical of President Wilson's Saturday night speech before the League to Enforce Peace, though the Daily News suggested that both the allies and the central powers can indorse his proposals for a conference after the war to prevent future wars.

"President Wilson does not perceive that his dream of universal peace lies in the lap, not of God, but of the allies," said the Evening Standard."

"In order to secure complete fulfillment of Wilson's desire to give humanity freedom, we refuse to entertain any issue but complete victory over the forces of tyranny and rapine," said the Pall Mall Gazette.

"President Wilson has never delivered a speech more pregnant of possibilities," said the Daily News, in a lengthy discussion.

WITHDRAWAL OF COLONEL JAMES.

Colonel Rorer A. James, who was a candidate against Congressman Carter Glass for a place on the National Democratic Committee, has withdrawn from the race ,leaving Mr. Glass a clear field. Hence the hopes of the Republicans and Bull Moosers that the Roanoke Convention would be the theatre of a bitter factional fight have passed away in the night as an idle dream.

Every true democrat is ready to bow to the will of the majority. He would not be simon-pure member of the party if he was not, nor would he if he failed to do everything possible in order to preserve perfect harmony in the organization. But Colonel James has gone much further He has forfeited something in order that the waters may not be troubled in the state convention. He had every reason to believe he would win; but rather than cause or perpetuate any schism in the democratic organization he has stepped aside and will offer no obstacle to the selection of Mr. Glass.

Colonel James's course is receiving the just plaudits of his fellow-democrats throughout the state, as he took this step despite a firm conviction that he was entitled, on every ground of proved ability and long party service to the position to which he aspired, and the further conviction that he would have won had he continued to be a candidate. It is like the man that, sacrificed his own legitimate ambition, he should do what is best for Virginia Democracy.

For the contest was unhappy and was anticipated with anxiety by all good democrats. The eve of a presidential election, with national issues of the largest consequence awaiting decision, is not the time for a squabble among Democrats which Colonel James was not slow to realize.

In dispatches from Washington the following statement is imputed to Congressman Carter Glass: "I am in no sense a party to any such adjustment. If such an arrangement has been made, it is one which I should never have suggested."

What course he shall follow is for Mr. Glass' own decision, but he is hardly likely to win plaudits at this time by an attitude of stubborness. The rank and file of the party wants peace, and earnest supporters of Mr. James approve even his withdrawal in this interest' If the olive branch that has been offered is rejected the blame should lie where it belongs.

There should be harmony at Roanoke and in the party ranks. The interests of Democracy demand of every Democrat such reasonable concessions as will make harmony possible. Pig headed insistence on some detail of policy or platform would be as foolish as it would be disastrous.

Rorer James has shown himself big enough to retire from this contest, so hurtful to Democratic solidarity. He has proved that his affection for the party is greater than his affection for himself. He is a Democrat of the right sor.

Colonel James, it is understood, will be elected chairman of the State Democratic Committee, the highest political honor that can be awarded in this State.

DOCTOR WAITE SINGS HYMNS.

Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, the dentist, who was convicted Saturday in New York for the murder of his father-in-law, John Peck, spent several hours yesterday at church.

Waite had expressed a desire to attend divine services Saturday night after his conviction, so at 9 o'clock yesterday morning he was taken to the chapel in the tombs to hear Rev. Dr. J. Callahan, Protestant Episcopal chaplain, deliver a sermon. Later Waite attended a Christian Science lecture in the Tombs. He sang all the hymns which had been selected.

The devil was sick, the devil a saint would be;
The devil was well, the devil a saint was he;

is a well-known couplet and is often brought to mind in the case of certain specimens of the genus homo who never become pious save in their extremity.

David Copperfield upon one occasion paid a visit to an English penitentiary. He was shown the inmates of different cells and the crime of the occupants were detailed to him. Upon reaching one the keeper told David that the man confined therein was a model prisoner, spending all his time poring over a hymn book, keeping his eyes fastened upon certain stanzas for hours at a time. Copperfield gazed closely at the man and saw he was an old acquaintance—Uriah Heap—the most natural-born rascal ever described by Dickens.

It is a common thing to see men called upon to answer for grave crimes carry Bibles to the dock with them. It has been noticed in our own city. There is a pointed paragraph in the New Testament which must send a shiver down the backs of such: "For whatsoever a man soweth that shall be also reap.' It would be much better to digest this awful fact before getting into trouble.

ADJUTANT IN THE PULPIT.

An adjutant from Washington and the detachment of the Salvation Army which is stationed in Alexandria conducted the services in the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday morning. They were accompanied by all those who have become interested in spiritual matters through their labors during the time the little band has been laboring in this field. They were heartily greeted by the members of the Second Church and made to feel perfectly at home. The congregation entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion, and all felt that it was good for them to have been there.

We have no intention of preaching a sermon, and could not if we would, but we cannot resist the inclination to suggest that such pictures are, in a spiritual sense, healthful, and are the best manifestations of true Christianity. The Saviour had his attention called upon one occasion to certain persons who were casting out demons in His name, but who were not following the Apostles. The latter asked permission to forbid them from exercising such power. The reply of the Son of Man was epigrammatic but forceful—"Forbid them not, for he that is not against us is for us." Awful lesson this, and it applies to us as much as it did to the Judeans of old.

"He that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be manifest," is a well-known passage and often commented upon. Hence it is our deeds, not our creeds, which will pass safely through the fires of the last days.

NEWS OF THE DAY

In a collision of two automobiles at the Mount Pleasant crossroads, south of Wilmington, Del., yesterday William H. Shea, a salesman, was instantly killed and three others were injured.

Reports from Peking state that the condition of Yuah Shih Kai, President of the Chinese republic, is grave. He was taken ill Friday and cannot speak. It is suspected that he has been poisoned.

Mrs. George Petcan, 30, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., rejected the proposal of John Stanish a boarder to elope and paid with her life for the rejection. She died from a bullet wound over the heart.

There was nothing in President Wilson's address at the banquet of the League to Euforce Peace in Washington Saturday night that may be construed as bearing upon the termination of the European war or indicating that any step in that direction is contemplated by the government of the United States.

Joseph Kasiny, 40, a wealthy merchant, of McKees Rocks, Pa., yesterday, died and his wife and 11 year old daughter are in the Ohio Valley Hospital, as a result of bullet wounds suffered shortly before midnight when the husband is alleged to have shot the two others and then himself. Mrs. Kasiny and her daughter are expected to recover.

The aggregate German losses before Verdun are set at about 350,000 by the Petit Parisien. The Echo de Paris states that the minimum German losses east of the Meuse alone during the past week were about 11,000. After strictest verification of the figure the French lost one-third of this number in the fighting at Fort Douaumont and the Haudromont quarries.

Blinded by lighting, Edgar Davenport, of Franklin, N. J., drove his automobile into an express train at Singac, N. J., a suburb last night. Three occupants of the automobile are dead and the fourth is dying. Davenport probably did not know of the crossing. The lightning dimmed the headlight of the engine.. The thunder made it impossible to hear the roar of the train or the whistle.

The discovery yesterday morning of the body of a middle-aged woman, well dressed, two miles at sea by Thaddeus Cowden, a market fisherman, has given the coroner and the police of Atlantic City, a mystery to solve. They are inclined to believe the woman jumped or fell from a passing passenger steamer. Minute search of the clothing, dark and of good material, revealed no mark whatever. Scars on the body indicated that the woman had undergone a surgical operation.

Three children were drowned in Stony Creek near Hooversville, Pa., yesterday afternoon. Mary Kubuch, 4, and Mary Blowitz, 3, tried to cross the breast of a mill dam, but slipped on the wet planks and were hurled into the deep water below. Michael Blowitz, 8 leaped into the stream in a vain endeavor to draw his sister and playmate to safety. The boy kept up his efforts to bring the girls to the surface tilll, too exhausted to reach the bank himself, he sank.

A "warning" that "Great Britain is preparing to sink an American ship or to destroy American lives to provoke war between the United States and Germany," has been sent to every member of the Senate and House by the American Truth Society over the signatures of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, president of the society and the society's board of trustees. Most of the names denote Celtic or Teutonic origin. The "warning," contained in a small leaflet, boldly states that Great Britain would go to the extreme of sinking an American ship and putting the blame on a German U-boat in order to start war between the United States and Germany.

The general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, after a four hours session yesterday in New York, decided to endorse the demands of the locked out telegraphers, and reinstatement. President S. J. Konenkamp, of the C. T. U. A., who presided, said that failure to reinstate the discharged men would mean a national fight. The telegraphers, acting on the recommendations of the general executive board, will prepare today a general strike ultimatum to the Western Union Telegraph Company. Failure on the part of the company to reinstate the locked out men, it is said will mean a national strike, involving from 20,000 to 40,000 telegraphers.

George Clemenceau, of Paris, in an editorial headed "Errors in Tactics," argues in connection with the German peace verbosity and the violent attacks on Verdun, in which he says the cost of life is out of proportion to any possible result obtainable that "it is easily seen that Verdun is the enemy's last effort, his last hope. "The kaiser's chancellor like diplomacy has found a complaisant listener in President Wilson while the latter is occupying the Presidency. Mr. Wilson is a candidate for reelection. His mediation, if Europe consented it, would be the only title he needs, but it is difficult to confer upon him such a title, for the simple reason that with the ingenuousness which honors him and with the hope perhaps foreign to our habit, he publicly proclaimed his offer of intervention. Events will show, cher monsieur President. Do not rush your judgment."

VIRGINIA NEWS

The proposed "preparedness" parade was condemned by the Central Trades and Labor Council in resolutions adopted at a meeting held Sunday night in Richmond.

In a crossing collision early yesterday morning between a Bay Shore trolley car, Ocean View Line, and a wagon, Peter M. Murden, one of the best-known truckers in that section of Norfolk county, was fatally injured and Mrs. Murden, his wife, and young son were killed. The car struck the wagon while going at full speed, hurling it from the track.

Derailment of a train by an alligator lying across the tracks near Tela, Honduras, caused the death of Henry Kinard Smith, civil engineer, son of the late Bishop Coke Smith, of the Southern Methodist Church, according to information received lately by Mr. Smith's relatives in Richmond from Robert Lansing, Secretary of State, The accident occured March 25. As a precaution against bubonic plague the body cannot be removed from Honduras until after the lapse of four years.

Surgeon Hugh S. Cummings, of the United States Public Health Service, after an exhaustive investigation of the pollution of the tidal waters of Maryland and Virginia, declares in his report to Suregon-General Rupert Blue that the oysters tributaries under present conditions are a "safe food as a whole," but he warns the State of Virginia that unless it provides anti-pollution laws, like Maryland has done. many of its valuable shellfish beds are in danger of destruction from pollution.

Five hundred strike breakers, composed of foreigners and negroes, imported by water from Hopewell, yesterday were landed at the wharves of the Old Dominion Steamship Co., at Norfolk, to take the place of longshoremen, who have quit work to enforce a demand for an increase in wages. The property of the company is being carefully guarded by a squad of policemen, while the strike breakers are being housed and cared for on one of the company's river steamers, to prevent the possibility of a clash with strikers. The tension is said to be acute.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Leaders Fear Roosevelt Will Cause Split in Party

Washington, May 29—With many of the Republicans of the House and Senate leaving Washington for Chicago to participate in the preliminaries of the convention and later in the convention itself, and numerous Democrats of prominence getting ready to make the pilgrimage to St. Louis, political interest today began to warm up at the Capitol.

Two important phases of the Republican and Bull Moose situation are commanding more and more notice as the time for the convention in Chicago draws nearer.

One of these concerns a threatened bolt and formation of a third party if Roosevelt should be the Republican nominee.

The other concerns the threatened nomination of a separate Bull Moose ticket if Roosevelt should not be the Republican nominee.

In other words the problem which the men responsible for the Republican course at Chicago have to work out is how to effect amalgamation of the Republican and Bull Moose and at the safe time prevent a bolt.

While there has been a vast amount of talk about the ease of getting together, it begins to appear that the difficulties in the way are serious.

Not only are the more aggressive Bull Moose in a temper to put up a third ticket unless Roosevelt or a man satisfactory to him be named on a progressive platform, but there is growing talk among anti-Roosevelt men in the Republican party that if Roosevelt should be nominated they will bolt and put up a ticket of their own.

WAITE WANTS NO APPEAL.

New York, May 29.—A declaration that he wishes no appeal in his behalf was contained in a statement issued from his cell in the Tombs yesterday by Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, convicted Saturday of the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck, of Grand Rapids..

"I am satisfied with the verdict," he said, "and don't want any appeal made by Walter O. Deuel (Waite's chief counsel) or anyone else. I am willing to take the punishment for my ill-deeds, and the quicker that punishment comes, the better."

Waite's demeanor underwent a change yesterday and he lost much of the mask of indifference which he has maintained since his removal to prison. He slept fitfully Saturday night and appeared nervous when he arose.

He expressed a desire to attend religious service and was one of those who heard the Rev. P. Callahan preach on "The Two Thieves" at the Protestant services conducted in the prison.

In the afternoon Waite sent for a copy of the Bible and spent several hours reading it. The young dentist also read the newspaper, especially accounts of his conviction.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
